BRIEF PROFILE

Pradyuman Dubey is a Partner at C&S Partners and is seasoned disputes and transactions lawyer. He is known for his ability to navigate high-stakes, multi-forum conflicts with precision and strategic clarity. His practice spans complex commercial arbitration, regulatory litigation, insolvency, white-collar matters, and cross-border corporate advisory. He has acted in several marquee arbitrations both domestic and international, under SIAC, ICC, and LCIA Rules, involving claims running into thousands of crores and multi-million-dollar exposures. His work includes representing leading infrastructure, engineering, energy, telecom, automobile, and technology companies, as well as global conglomerates and foreign governments.

Pradyuman has appeared before the Supreme Court, Securities Appellate Tribunal, SEBI, and various arbitral tribunals, securing outcomes that have averted concession terminations, reduced massive liabilities, and enabled favourable settlements in contentious shareholder, EPC, and commercial disputes. His regulatory and white-collar experience includes advising major Indian and multinational corporations in proceedings initiated by the CBI, Enforcement Directorate, and other investigative agencies, as well as conducting sensitive internal investigations.

Beyond disputes, he regularly advises on strategic transactions, including acquisitions, joint ventures, corporate restructurings, and the sale of large infrastructure assets. His diverse experience and problem-solving approach make him a trusted advisor to boards, promoters, and global investors navigating India's legal and regulatory landscape.
